STAFF & SAFETY

Safety First

Being one of the world’s best camps, camp staff takes responsibility extremely seriously – all aspects of safety are considered insisting on the highest of standards.

Camp and centre facilities have been carefully chosen with safety as a prime consideration. Instructors are fully qualified first aiders on site and camp has links with local doctors and hospitals.

All of the camp staff is selected for their common sense, maturity, qualifications, enthusiasm, experience and their ability to relate to young people and motivate them.

Staff undergoes a detailed selection procedure, which involves candidates being interviewed and attending pre camp training and orientation course. This covers safety guidelines and site specific risk assessments for every activity and general safety topics including fire drills and security. Meetings between the camp management team and key staff take place regularly.

OPTIONAL EXCURSIONS not included

- A visit to Madame Tussauds, OR London Eye OR London Aquarium.
- The Making of Harry Potter Warner Bros Studio Tour.
- A day in Southampton Newport OR Brighton.
